

Program outcome, program specific outcome and course outcome for all programmes

The college imparts undergraduate teaching in fifteen subjects and post-graduate teaching in eleven subjects. Student getting graduation degrees in different subject are eligible to apply for various competitive examination conducted by State and Central Govt. for different Jobs. In addition they are also eligible for various private Jobs. Student passing graduation go for some professional courses also. Some prefer to do post graduation.

Student passing post graduation course are eligible for Ph.D Degree. They are also eligible for various teaching Jobs after qualifying NET. Students having post-graduate in science subject are also eligible for research and development work in different State and Central Govt. Research organisation.